What are the risks involved investing in NovaTech?

NovaTech would be classified as a high-risk investment due to the nature of the volatility of digital crypto and forex trading. NovaTech removes a lot of the risk by limiting their exposure to 20-30% of their trading assets. They do have a $1 billion liquidity pool and over 400,000 investors. However, we are still in the wild, wild west of digital trading and much can change. You should invest only what you can afford to lose. We don't know what we don't know about the future and the future laws that could affect this trading platform. We suggest getting your principal back as soon as you can to avoid risk.

How do I get started in NovaTech?

Once you fund your account you will open a NovaTech account and transfer funds into NovaTech for them to begin trading for you. Is NovaTech a multi-level marketing program?

NO.

However, they do have an affiliate program that pays 7 ways which allows you to build income from teams.

Unlike most MLM companies, success of NovaTech is not dependent on the affiliate program. Income is not dependent on the affiliate program. You may choose to simply earn passive income from your one account if you choose to do so.

DISTINCTIVES

However, they do provide a way to earn more by sharing with others. There are 7 ways to earn extra income from the Affiliate Program.

Unlike most MLMs, NovaTech has a very hi retention rate – almost 100%! (because there is no motivation to leave when you make money your first week and every week thereafter!)

What are my tax liabilities?

The rule in the US is you are not taxed until you bring crypto out and convert to US dollars, or if you convert to another crypto. It is then that it is a taxable event. NovaTech does not issue tax forms at the end of the year as they are serving clients all around the world using crypto, not US dollars. Your exchange would issue tax information after that transaction takes place at the end of the year. You are not taxed on the reinvestment until you cash it out to US currency. We recommend you consult your CPA for more details on this.

Has anyone ever lost money in Novatech? No

Have they ever been late on weekly payouts? No

How does compound interest work?

The best way to explain it is to provide examples of what takes place with various scenarios. If you invested $500 and compounded the interest weekly at 3%, which is the average payout of NovaTech, you would have $2167. If you left that $500 in for five years you would have $1,088,048.

If you invested $1000 and compounded the interest weekly at 3% you would have $4,650. If you invested only $1000 for 5 years and compounded the weekly interest, you would make $2,176,097

Why are Friday's slower on the website?

ROI is posted every Friday and so many people visit the site to see their ROI. However, in October 2022 a new feature was added, Auto-Transfer Option, which allows you to automatically reinvest your earning without having to visit the website. This should help lower the amount of traffic on Fridays. Bonus income from Affiliate Commissions come out Saturday afternoon as well as Bonus income profit-sharing which relates only to those who have higher ranking in the company.

What kind of support will I have if I become a client?

The company's website has a support feature, a toll-free number to leave a message and we have a WhatsApp group where you can get answers 24/7. Our

I've seen videos about NovaTech and its founders accusing them of being a scam and that the owners were involved in a scam at one time.

These are false accusations and half-truths. We have several written documents on our support page you can download to review our responses to these claims.
